

April 11, 1972
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CURRENT FINANCIAL DEVELOPMENT SEMINARS AT S.G.W.U. APRIL 13 - 14

Four topics of vital interest to the financial community will be discussed in two days of seminars at Sir George Williams University.

Experts from government, business and the university will tackle current issues in local, national and international finance April 13 and 14. The seminars, limited to encourage open discussion, are expected to attract the cream of Canada's financial executives.

The schedule (all in room 435 of the Hall Building, de Maisonneuve at Bishop):

April 13

10 a.m. - 12 noon

THE CANADA DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

H.A. Hampson, chairman, The Canada Development Corporation; N. Takacsy, vice-president, Greenshields Incorporated; G.D. Sutton, president, Canadian Enterprise Development Corporation; W.T.G. Hackett, S.G.W.U., former vice president Money Management, Bank of Montreal (moderator).

2 - 4 p.m.

INTERNATIONAL MONETARY DEVELOPMENTS AND THE CANADIAN DOLLAR

R.W. Lawson, deputy governor, Bank of Canada; R.M. Mitchell, assistant general manager, Royal Bank of Canada; R.A. Mundell, University of Chicago and visiting professor University of Waterloo; J.A. Galbraith, director of economic research, Royal Bank of Canada (moderator).

April 14

10 a.m. - 12 noon

THE NEED FOR INNOVATION IN FINANCING CANADIAN REAL ESTATE

R.T. Adamson, executive director, economic section CMHC; A.E. Diamond, president, Cadillac Development Corporation; J.F. Close, senior vice president - foreign investment, The Royal Trust Company; E. Baysari, consultant to investment firms; S.J. Silverton, S.G.W.U. (moderator).

2 - 4 p.m.

MONTREAL FINANCIAL COMMUNITY: PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS

William Tetley, Quebec minister of Financial Institutions; P.C. Briant, president, Manitoba Development Corporation and McGill professor of management; S.E. Nixon, director, Dominion Securities Corporation; C.C. Potter, S.G.W.U. chairman, department of finance (moderator).

- 30 -

Malcolm Stone
Information Officer

Note: More from Prof. S. Silverton, 879-4149.

SGWU NEWS RELEASE